

Madison County Public Libraries Library Board of Trustees

The Library Board of Trustees is an Advisory Board with no legal responsibility except what is granted by Madison County Board of Commissioners. The Library Board of Trustees generally makes recommendations on policy to the local government and acts as a liaison between the library, county government and the community.

The Library Board of Trustees is made up of 7 volunteers representing the three town areas of the County- Hot Springs, Marshall, and Mars Hill. All regularly scheduled meetings are generally held on the 3rd Tuesday of the odd months with the exception of November and are rotated to the three library locations.
